

Anna Jacobson was one of the people who was instrumental in starting the Altar Guild in the early 1980's when Pastor Doug Olson was serving GA.

Anna helped organize the baptismal banner, and made the linen baptismal clothes used on the child at baptism. The red carnations given by Harold & Anna at the time of a baptism was given in memory of their son Harvey and grandson Justin Jacobson. The baptismal cloth and carnation were given to the child and parents.

The palms for Palm Sunday were given by Anna & Harold.

At least twenty plus years Anna took care of the inside flowers, making many special trips to town to see that the plants were watered.

The past few years Anna has been an honorary member of Altar Guild.

The red carnations on the tables in the Fellowship Hall are in memory of Anna given by the Altar Guild.
