Building a Community of Generosity

“God Pause”

Generosity Story

Dear G.A. Church family,

I grew up in a family that didn't talk much about money. I saw the envelope on the table each week to be taken with us to church, but for the life of me, I cannot tell you if it included $1 or $1000. We never talked about it.

So, I guess my family was generous. I learned to give each week, but I didn't learn what to give. Fortunately, people have mentored that for me.

When I was a child, I remember my grandma sending money to organizations, such as World Vision and Compassion International, that help support children across the country and the world. She would send $50 once a year to each organization to help provide food, clothing, and medical supplies. My grandma would tell me, "Your grandpa and I want to help others." And so they did.

When I was a young mom, I struggled to feed my child and pay the bills while attending college fulltime. Once a year a family friend would send me $200 to "help me with my studies." At the time, that was a huge amount and it taught me to think of others.

Last spring, a couple contacted me and said, "We were talking the other day about the church needs and realized we haven't donated money to the church in a long time. We are sending a donation and we want the church to use it where the money would make a difference." A week later, a check showed up in the mail. It was a check for $2,000!

I'm surrounded by generous people who continue to teach me about generosity. As we think about our giving for next year, my husband and I have decided that for two months next year, February and August, we will double our giving in each of those months. We aren't sure how exactly that will go, but we heard about the idea from a friend and thought we would try it out.

I look forward to hearing more of your stories of generosity as we begin this generosity journey together.

In Peace,

Pastor Jaime +

Lutfisk Supper & Bake Sale: The 85th Annual Lutfisk Supper and Bake Sale will be held Sunday, October 29th from 1:00-5:30pm. Keep your eyes and ears peeled for more preparation information.

WELCA Ladies please remember to have your Bake Sale items to the church by Noon on the 29th. Thank you!

Watering Plants: The new landscaping plants and trees at GA look great, but they need to be watered regularly until winter. This is a BIG job for just 1 person, the council is asking us all to step up and help out. There is a Watering Record sheet on the bulletin board by the office. If you come and water plants/trees please mark down what day and what areas you watered, so that the next person coming in doesn't repeat. This is all VOLUNTEER work, so please, step up and help out. Even if you don't water them all, any little bit helps. The Plants Thank you for your help! 😊
